Dear Ms. Montgomery:

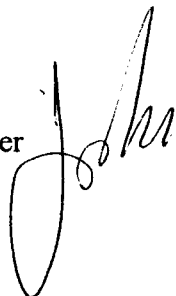

This letter is to inform you that we have ceased all faxes going to the State of Ohio. Also, as you can see we have sent back to you the envelopes of the letters you have sent us. The United States Post Office has held our mail for some time now. If you look at the date on the envelope it is stamped as of April 13, 2002.

Please forward all correspondences to the address on this letter.

If you have any further questions please feel free to give me a call.

Sincerely,

Jasin Rice
Office Manager
